Tent & Durrie Manufacturers, CAWNPORE.

TENTS built on the most SCIENTIFIC PRINCIPLES with due regard to MODERN REQUIREMENTS and COMFORT. Inspection of material will show that our Tents are SECOND TO NONE.

THE DEPUTY COMMISSIONER AND SETTLEMENT OFFICER, Sultanpur.

I have the honour to state that the Tents (3 Swiss Cottage, 3 Hill, 3 'Sleeping, 15 Servants', 4 Bath-room Tents, etc.) have given every satisfaction. I have got Tents on several occasions from your Firm, and always have good value in them, and found that they were thoroughly well finished.

FROM

THE OFFICIATING COMMISSIONER, Rohilkhand Division, Bareilly,

Certified that the 2 Hill, 2 Sleeping, 6 Servants', and 2 Necessary Tents which Messrs, J. J. Bell. & Co., c Cawnpore supplied to this office in August, 1892, have lasted very well, notwithstanding the exposure and sever handling they received at the Survey Class held at Shahjahanpur last winter.

Dated Cawnpore, 16th July, 1899.

THE EXECUTIVE ENGINEER, Fatchpur Division, Lower Ganges Canal.

I have very much pleasure in expressing my complete satisfaction with the various Tents you have supplie to this Division during the last four years,

The "Shikar Tents" in particular have met with the approval of every officer who has used them as comfortable and handy tent.

FROM THE SECRETARY, DISTRICT BOARD, Amritsar. (Plain & Bordered). Dated the 16th March, 189 Dated the 16th March, 1892.

The five Carpets (Durries) supplied by you are the best I have seen in India. The workmanship i excellent, and the colours are pleasing and fast.

CENTRAL INDIA AGENCY.

The Central India Agency lies between 21° 24' and 26° 52' N. Lat. and 74° 0' and 83° 0' E. Long., and may be said to consist of two large detached tracts of country, with which Jhansi, as a pivot, spring outwards East and West, into the Peninsula, reaching Northwards to within some 30 miles of Agra, and Southwards to the Valley of Nurbadda and the Vindhya and Satpura Ranges. The total area is 78,772 square miles. It is bounded on the North and North-East by the United Provinces of Agra and Oudh, on the West and South-West by Rajputana, some Native States of the Bombay Presidency and Khandesh. The Central Provinces and the Bengal districts of Chota Nagpur enclose it on the South and East, while the Jhansi district of the United Provinces separates the two tracts. Population about 104,779.

ending in outside COORG-Southern India.

A Province in Southers, India, under the Administration of the Government of India, lying between N. Lat. 11°56° and 12°50°; E. Long. 75°25° and 76°30°. It is bounded along its entire Western Frontier by the Mountain Chain of the Western Ghats, which separates it from the Madras District of Malabar and South Canava. The Western Ghats curve somewhat inland, which serves also to some extent as the Northern and Southern boundary. The North of Coorg is partially separated from the forest highlands of Mysore by the River's Kumaradbari and Homacati; and on the East it merges in the general tableland of Mysore, the boundary being marked by the River's avery. Total area, according to recent estimate of the Survey Dept., is 1,581 square miles. Population, 180,607. Languages spoken:—Canarese, Malayalam, Telegu and Tamil. INDIAN MEDICAL GAZETTE.

THE JOURNAL OF THE INDIAN MEDICAL SERVICE.

A Monthly Record of Medicine, Surgery and Public Health, and of General Medical Intelligence, Indian and European, with special Attention to Diseases of Tropical Countries.

Edited by Major W. J. BUCHANAN, B.A., M.D., D.Ph., I.M.S.

Associate Editors-Lt.-Col. J. MAITLAND, M.D., I.M.S., Madras;

Major W. E. JENNINGS, M.D., D.P.H., I.M.S., Bombay; and Major C. DUER, M.B., F.R.C.S., I.M.S., Burma.

Published monthly Subscription, Rs. 12 per annum Single copy, Re. 1-4

The Indian Medical Gazette was founded in 1865. It is consequently by far the oldest Medical Journal in India, and has earned for itself a world-wide reputation by its solid contribution to Tropical Medicine and Surgery. It is in every way the most important representative medium for recording the work and experience of the medical profession in India, and by means of its Exchanges with all the leading journals in Great Britain, America and Australia, as well as by its foreign exchanges with leading French German and Italian medical periodicals, it is enabled to diffuse information on all tropical diseases culled from an unusual variety of sources.

The Gazette is now thoroughly representative of all ranks of the profession in India.

The reviews of Current Medical Literature are intrusted to medical officers in India with special knowledge and experience of the subject with which they deal: they consist of résumes of the most, important contemporary work in the various departments of medicine and are as follows :-(1) Tropical Medicine; (2) Surgery; (3) Obstetrics and Gynæcology; (4) Special Senses (Eye, Ear, etc.); (5) Bacteriology and Pathology; (6) Public Health and Sanitation; and (7) Military Medicine and
